POLITICS IN PENNA.
 STIRS TWO CITIES

Dinners Tonight in Washington and Pittsburgh May Help to Clear Tangle

VARE DEALS ANTICIPATED

Pennsylvania politics, which have been tangled since the death of Senator Penrose, will be earnestly discussed in two cities tonight.

In Washington, the Pennsylvania congressional delegation will be the guest of Congressman Vore, who will give a dinner in honor of the new Senator, George Wharton Pepper.
 In Pittsburgh, former Mayor E. V.
 Babcock will be the guest of 1400 big and little politicians. Both occasions will serve to draw political leaders into conference on such questions as the State ticket, the successor to Senator Penrose on the National Committee and the prospects for a factional battle in the State.

Senator Vore intended to go to the Babcock dinner, but hastily changed his plans and went to Washington instead. His conference with United States Senator Crow has been postponed, some say, because of the serious condition of the Senator, who is ill in Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh.

While in Washington, Senator Vore, it is believed, will find a sentiment in favor of Governor Sprout for national committeeman. Vore favors either Crow or W. Harry Baker, secretary of the State Committee for the National Committee.

Governor Sprout will attend the Babcock dinner, while Vore will be represented by Harry A. Mackey, chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board.
 Mackey may also try to see Senator Crow and definitely arrange a time for the Crow-Vore conference which is expected to have an important bearing on the trend of State politics in the immediate future.

The Governor will go from the Babcock dinner to Washington, where he will be a guest tomorrow night at a dinner to be given President Harding by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

 expects to sound out sentiment in the delegation for a Vore candidate for Governor. The Senator's friends are assiduously engaged in pushing the gubernatorial candidacy of W. Freeland Kendrick. They are somewhat checkmated, however, by the fact that Senator Pepper is also a Philadelphian, and according to the rules of the game, Philadelphia cannot have the candidates for both Senator and Governor. The western end of the State, probably at the Babcock dinner, will vigorously shout for a Western candidate for Governor. Senator Vore will be busy, therefore, and may discuss deals with a view of getting somewhere out of the fog.

Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, vice-chairman of the Republican State Committee, is inclined to favor State Highway Commissioner Sadler as a candidate for Governor, according to friends who have discussed the matter with her.
 Mrs. Warburton, it is said, also believes State Banking Commissioner Fisher and Attorney General Altz would be acceptable to the women of Pennsylvania as Governor Sprout's successor. She is said to regard all three as "good men," with Sadler as her first choice for the governorship.

Jailed for Window-Smashing—Put on Probation in Shooting Case

Francis Naber, seventeen, who lived at 146 Poplar street, and now serving a sentence in Holmesburg prison for breaking a window on Market street, was put on probation today in the death of Robert Renner, who was shot and killed June 5, 1919.

Naber was brought to the criminal court and given a talking to by Judge Thomas J. Prather, of Crawford County.

"Will you be a good boy, if I put you on probation?" asked the Judge.

"I will surely go straight," the boy replied.

"Very well, your sentence of nine months expires Saturday. You will then start your probationary period, which will continue until the court is sure you are going straight."

Naber was taken back to Holmesburg to await his release Saturday.
